

This amendment does not have the support of the citizens of this country. The majority want limits on abortion and do not believe that children should be permitted to have access to reproductive services, i.e. abortion and abortifacient drugs. This is unacceptable legislation and should be defeated.