

I categorically oppose HB1171 for the following reasons:

There are no age limits defined, so this exploits children

It promotes protection of child molesters

It gives underage children the 'right' to abort a child without their parents' permission

Supports taxpayer funding of abortion

There is more, but I have said enough. There is simply no way a person with a conscience could seriously vote in favor of this bill.