

HB 1171

The terrible abortion statistics always affect me-one and a half million murdered each year for the last 39 years. The African American community is hit the hardest, as their abortions triple their percentage of the population. It is no wonder that a nation which has acted so selfishly and with such barbarism toward the most vulnerable is coming to an end game financially. We sow that which we reap.