

This is an evil evil bill. The lack of details is allowing for predators to get away with rape, and worse off Children to have abortions without any consent or knowledge of this. The wording is complete evil by not having a clear concise description.

We cannot allow our country to continue in this direction or it will be a fall of all morals as we know it. Protecting the most innocent should be common sense and common knowledge.