

I am opposed to this bill because I respect life and firmly believe that only Almighty God holds the power to give and take life, not the government ever.