

This bill should not be passed. There are no specifics in the bill. Opens up the door for statutory rape, allows minors to make life changing decisions without the guidance of the people that love them. The tax payer should not be paying for this.