

HB 1109

I strongly support any bill that will provide a woman the time to consider the terrible consequences of abortion for her child and herself. It is known that when a mother or father view the ultrasound of their child in the womb, they are much less inclined to abort their baby. A waiting period of at least 24 hours (or longer) should be standard as long as the abortion of unborn children is legal.