

The language of HB0626 is misleading if adopted as is. Specifically, with no clear definition of the term “perinatal” in the Maryland Code, its use could be interpreted in ways contrary to the law and thereby implicate Marylanders as unknowingly supporting infanticide. The majority of all the definitions for “perinatal” includes “after birth.” This bill is unacceptable as is.