

HB819

Favorable

I support HB819. Proof one has had an illness has historically been seen, and ought to be seen currently and into the future, as a valid reason not to need or be required to take a vaccine. There is no reason to deny or change what science has always known.

Sincerely,

Kathy Talbott