

Dear Committee Members,

Dry needling is part of Chinese acupuncture. Without an appropriate minimum of 4,050 hours of classroom instruction, supervised clinical experience and training, it will endanger public health.

Consequently, I'm against athletic trainers using dry needling to treat parties without appropriate training and clinical experience.

Sincerely yours,
Christina Rients
L.Ac.