

House Bill 0735 promotes the health and rights of women, supporting them in making vital decisions in light of the latest medical research, research that has progressed beyond arbitrary and unscientific standards of “viability”. The life altering and far-reaching decision of whether to continue or terminate a pregnancy must be an informed choice, which this Bill would support.