

To whom it may concern:

I am in favor of Bill HB0799. We now know that the COVID vaccines do not prevent transmission of the virus, therefore should not be required as a condition of employment. It should be an individual's choice whether or not to get vaccinated, certainly not up to that person's employer.

Amy Brusini
Phoneix, MD