

To whom it may concern:

I am in favor of HB1358. I value mine and my family's medical privacy and would like to protect this right. Personal medical information is confidential and should stay that way. Discrimination based on medical status should not be tolerated.

Amy Brusini
Phoneix, MD