

HB0735

I support any effort to change abortion laws in Maryland that would decrease the number of abortions in our state. Maryland's abortion laws are some of the most liberal in this country and the world. This atrocity of killing our unborn children needs to be fought on every level of our government. This bill does not go far enough, but it is at least a start in the right direction.