SB0006 - Landlord and Tenant - Residential Leases - Tenant Rights and Protections (Tenant Protection Act of 2022)

Hearing before the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee, Feb. 3, 2022

Position: SUPPORT (FAV)

The Public Justice Center (PJC) is a nonprofit public interest law firm that stands with tenants to protect and expand their rights to safe, habitable, affordable, and non-discriminatory. We support Senate Bill 6, the Tenant Protection Act of 2022, which provides Maryland renters four concise, long-needed, meaningful reforms that help balance landlord-tenant relations. This bill passed the House in 2021 and reflects amendments and compromises achieved in the 2020 session.

SB0006 adds documentation of security deposit deductions

In Maryland, release of a tenant's security deposit can be delayed up to 45 days after the tenant moves out of the property. Particularly for lower-income renters in Maryland, this delay imposes economic hardship that can destabilize the renter's new tenancy. This hardship is worsened when renters finally receive their security deposit back and find that the landlord deducted fees or charges unreasonably. Current law requires landlords only to itemize the amounts withheld from the released security deposit. SB0006 creates an additional obligation by which landlords would provide documentation for those withheld amounts. For instance, if a landlord were to withhold hundreds of dollars for carpet cleaning after the renter moved out, SB0006 would require that the landlord, as practicable, provide their former tenant an invoice or other documentation that substantiates the itemized carpet-cleaning cost. Renters rely on the return of their security deposit and deserve to know, with the added certainty of documentation, why their former landlord deducted from the full deposit amount.

SB0006 expands grounds for early lease termination to include victims of stalking

Currently, Maryland law limits the costs faced by a tenant who seeks early lease termination on grounds that they are a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault. SB0006 adds stalking, as defined in the Criminal Law Article, as a third basis. This bill also addresses the difficult documentation standard in the current law, which requires the tenant to provide notice of intent to vacate to the landlord plus evidence of a peace order/protective order to substantiate their status as a victim. Because for many renters in these circumstances the peace order or protective order may be unattainable, SB0006 expands the documentation standard to include a report by a “qualified third party” (physician, psychologist, social worker) that supports the renter’s assertion of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Additionally, SB0006 specifies that a tenant in one of these emergency circumstances is responsible for payment of rent only for the period between their delivery of notice to the landlord and the date on which they vacate, up to a maximum of 30 days.

SB0006 allows renters access to utility information at master-meter buildings

SB0006 also sets forth new transparency provisions to help renters in Ratio Utility Billing System (“RUBS”) properties understand their energy and water charges. These properties are typically multi-family buildings on a master meter serviced by the local utility company. The owner then contracts with a third party to allocate utility charges to each unit in the building. Under current law (outside Montgomery County and Baltimore City), tenants have no statutory rights to access the allocation calculations or to see the underlying billing and consumption data for the building. SB0006 addresses this information gap. This bill requires that tenants have written notice explaining exactly which utilities they will be expected to pay and the exact method or formula for how these costs will be allocated. In addition, the bill requires landlords to provide tenants with the average monthly cost for each utility in the prior calendar year. Importantly, too, SB0006 provides incumbent tenants the right to request information that would verify the accuracy of allocated utility bills – including past bills. All of these components of SB0006 offer tenants the opportunity to understand fluctuating utility charges over time and to dispute excessive or confusing utility costs.

SB0006 gives tenant organizations the right of assembly in their buildings

Except in Montgomery County, tenant organizations can be intimidated or effectively shut down when their landlords prohibit their use of common areas. SB0006 defines “tenant organization” and sets forth a right of tenant organizations to assemble freely in a meeting room in certain multi-family properties.
