Re: HB0294 – Juvenile Court – Jurisdiction – Support with Amendments

The Office of the Attorney General urges the Judiciary Committee to favorably report with amendments House Bill 294. Delegate Crutchfield's bill repeals all provisions permitting prosecutors to directly charge juveniles in adult court for dozens of specified crimes. House Bill 294 is a good faith attempt to take cognizance of recent Supreme Court jurisprudence establishing that under the U.S. Constitution children are different than adults.¹ These cases rest upon an emerging scientific consensus that children have both diminished culpability and a heightened capacity for rehabilitation.

While we agree that, under current Maryland law, far too many enumerated crimes permit prosecutors to direct file against juveniles in adult court, we do believe that permitting prosecutors to do so in the worst of violent crimes—e.g. murder and rape—should continue to qualify for direct file. Because Department of Juvenile Services intake decisions (i.e. whether to commit or leave a juvenile in community supervision) are not immediately reviewable, it makes sense to permit prosecutors the discretion to remove particularly violent juvenile offenders from the community. Many of these same juveniles will have significant criminal histories warranting their separation from society at large pending trial on only the most violent of crimes.

¹ See e.g. Tatum v. Arizona, --- U.S. ---, 137 S.Ct. 11 (2016) (granting, vacating, and remanding in several cases where Arizona courts failed to consider individual circumstances of juveniles sentenced to life without parole); Montgomery v. Louisiana, 577 U.S. 190, 136 S.Ct. 718, 193 L.Ed.2d 599 (2016) (holding that Miller v. Alabama holding that Eighth Amendment mandatory life sentences without parole for juvenile offenders is a new substantive constitutional rule that was retroactive on state collateral review); Miller v. Alabama, 567 U.S. 460, 132 S.Ct. 2455, 183 L.Ed.2d 407 (2012) (mandatory life without parole for juvenile offenders is unconstitutional); Graham v. Florida, 560 U.S. 48, 130 S.Ct. 2011, 176 L.Ed.2d 825 (2010) (Eighth Amendment prohibits imposition of life without parole sentence on a juvenile offender who did not commit homicide, and State must give juvenile nonhomicide offender sentenced to life without parole a meaningful opportunity to obtain release); and Roper v. Simmons, 543 U.S. 551, 125 S.Ct. 1183, 161 L.Ed.2d 1 (2005) (prohibiting death sentences for those who committed their crimes before age 18).

For the foregoing reasons, the Office of the Attorney General urges the Committee to favorably report HB 294 with amendments continuing to permit direct file against juveniles who commit rape and murder (not to include felony murder).
