Re: Testimony in SUPPORT of HB515 - Inclusive Athletic Attire Act

Dear Chair Atterbeary and House Ways and Means Committee Members,

The Sikh Coalition, the largest Sikh civil rights organization in the nation, is pleased to support HB515, which seeks to grant an exception to the National Federation of High School Association's uniform standards. Specifically, this bill will codify into state law the right for secondary school, community colleges and college and university athletes in public institutions to wear clothing or head coverings that are worn for religious reasons, including a hijab, Sikh patka, or long-sleeved bodysuit/legging undergarments for modesty, without requiring prior approval.

By way of background, the Sikh religion, founded in India, is the fifth-largest organized religion in the world, with over 500,000 followers in the United States. While Sikhs have been an integral part of the American fabric for over 125 years, they remain disproportionately targeted in cases of bigotry, bias, bullying, and backlash. Relative to other vulnerable minorities, Sikhs are disproportionately targeted for discrimination because they wear turbans and maintain unshorn hair (including facial hair) in accordance with their faith. According to a survey by the Sikh Coalition, 67% percent of turbaned Sikh children have experienced bullying, which is more than twice the national average.

Students may often wear a patka, a smaller version of a Sikh turban, which is usually worn by boys before they begin wearing a turban. The turban and patka are religious headcovers required by the Sikh faith that cannot be easily removed or reapplied due to their spiritual significance. A turban, patka, and hair should always be treated respectfully, as they are considered articles of faith that are fundamental to Sikh religious practice. Sikhs, like all other Americans, have the right to wear these articles of faith in school settings, including while playing sports. At both the collegiate and professional level, Sikhs have been allowed to play with their articles of faith. FIFA allows Sikhs to play with turbans, and Sikhs have played competitive basketball with their turbans in the NCAA (Darsh Preet Singh) and NBL Canada (Dipanjot Singh).

While the Maryland Public Secondary Schools Athletic Association did issue a memo granting an exception to the National Federation of High School Association's uniform standards, we support HB515 in codifying religious uniform exceptions into state law. We respectfully urge your vote in favor of HB515 and thank you for your consideration.
