

Anthony Karwoski in support of HB 1197

Relief from secondary sales taxation encourages the repair and recycling of used equipment that still has useful life by encouraging lower resale and removing tons of material from landfills.

This measure can aid small business, clubs and nonprofits and consumers during a wave of international inflation by lowering the cost of goods. This has been a double taxation burden that is perpetuating non-progressive tax policy.