

HB0832

This bill needs to be thrown out because homeschool families have a right to educate their children without the state interfering. I do not want increased government oversight under the guise of representation for my home school family. You will never represent all homeschoolers which will lead to increased marginalization of those not represented by an APPOINTED representative. NO to this bill.