

T.A.M.E supports SB 0703 However we believe that all youth should forgo the test to determine if the charge and circumstances merit being waived on and charged as an adult. We stand with the science that supports the fact that youth brains are not fully developed until 24 and we believe that in this it gives youth an opportunity to put things back on track and pursue life absent a criminal record.

T.A.M.E
Transformative Advocacy Mentoring Empower www.tame1.org