

The state of PA requires that wholesalers get registered for $200 a year and to have background checks and liability insurance at $1,000,000 per occurrence. This should solve the issue and cover anybody who is hurt by a wholesaler without making them an agent.