

There are a lot of questions about health, safety and end-of-life disposal for synthetic turf. This chain-of-custody legislation is a good step toward accumulating data that can help answer these questions.