

I am a pediatrician with three children of my own. Life is precious to me.

Reproductive freedom ends after conception.

At that point you have a live human being and terminating that life is murder.

Only God can choose to end a life.

Those who play God with other's lives will have to answer for their actions.