

I support this very important legislation, with amendments, to allow equitable access to jobs and education in Maryland.