| NO. A blanket set of rules, prohibiting the interrogation of a juvenile arrestee does not serve the public interest and could potentially endanger the public. |
|--|
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |