

HB0953 Unfavorable

The providing of needles or clean drug supplies hasn't worked in the past so when we have no money to support this, why are you trying to implement this into our system? It has been proven that people need to hit the bottom to create change within themselves. It will not happen with education; drug users know it's bad for them.