

NO. Stop controlling our food and supply chains. Maryland does not need any more government interference blocking our bread basket production and distribution. Big government depletes finances from every day citizens.