

HB1232 Unfavorable

Pharmacists aren't doctors and they do not know the child's health history; and they are indemnified. There is no parental consent and if the child is injured the parent won't be able to determine why, vaccine injury happened. Targeting the underserved communities, where young children go into the pharmacy by themselves and could be coerced or even worse, bullied into getting a shot they don't want.