Re: SB 292 – Victims of Child Sex Trafficking and Human Trafficking – Safe Harbor for Sexually Exploited Youth

Dear Senators Smith and Waldstreicher and Members of the Senate
Judicial Proceeding Committee:

The Maryland Commission for Women writes to you with respect to SB
292 – Victims of Child Sex Trafficking and Human Trafficking – Safe
Harbor for Sexually Exploited Youth Act (the “Safe Harbor Act”). Sex Trafficking and Human Trafficking is an issue with which the Maryland Commission for Women (“MCW”) has long been concerned.

As you may know, the MCW was established in 1965 and was set in state law in 1971. An office of the Department of Human Services, the Commission is a 25-member advisory board whose duties outlined in its enabling legislation include: study the status of women in our state, recommend methods of overcoming discrimination, recognize women’s accomplishments and contributions, and provide informed advice to the executive and legislative branches of government on the issues concerning the women of our state. It is to fulfill this mandate that the Commission writes to you today.

Let us explain why this legislation is important: According to the Governor’s Office of Crime Prevention, Youth and Victim Services: “Human trafficking is a horrible crime that continues to occur in Maryland and affects all parts of the State. Three major airports, inexpensive bus transportation, train service along the east coast, large sporting events and disposable income makes Maryland an attractive destination for traffickers.”

Although efforts have been made in the recent past to address certain issues relating to human trafficking, the MCW believes that more can and should be done where young people – and particularly children under the age of 18 – are victims. The Safe Harbor Act would amend Maryland’s existing laws in three critical ways:

- Provide a safe harbor for child victims of sex trafficking.
- Help prevent child victims from further victimization by connecting them to rehabilitative and supportive services through the already established Regional Navigator program.
- Providing a pathway to prevent any criminal or delinquent charges brought against these youths that are directly related to trafficking.

We ask that Maryland be a voice of leadership on this important issue.

The Commission for Women requests your support for the passage of this important legislation.

With very best regards,
