RE: Senate Bill 15
Juvenile Law – Child in Need of Supervision – Mandatory Petition and Notice (NyKayla Strawder Memorial Act)
DATE: March 23, 2023
(4/5)
POSITION: Support

The Maryland Judiciary continues to support Senate Bill 15.

The Judiciary notes that under 2022 Juvenile Justice Reform act, Ch. 42/HB 459, Ch 41/SB 691, eff. June 1, 2022, amendments to CJP § 3-8A-03, inter alia, changed juvenile court jurisdiction when a child committed a delinquent act. Among those changes, the juvenile court no longer has jurisdiction over a delinquency proceeding against a child who is under age 10 under any circumstances. CJP § 3-8A-03(a), (d)(7). This change removed the ability of the juvenile court to require services for these younger children and thus take steps to prevent their future involvement with the juvenile court. In providing for a mandatory CINS petition, the bill would return to the juvenile court oversight for these most vulnerable children.
