

As one needs identification, for such activities as boarding a flight, though renting a car, to buying alcohol, one would think that they'd need one for one of our most precious rights; voting.

Ensuring voting integrity is one way to make the public more confident in the voting process.

I am in favor of HB0035 In-Person Voting - Proof of Identity.

-Tomasz Smok
Hanover, Maryland