

HB1107 Favorable

Offering mental health help outside of school can be helpful when certain ideologies don't align with the parent and the school. Choice is important.