

OPPOSE

HB0069 Education - Student Behavior - Parent and Guardian Notice and Required Counseling (Parent and Guardian Accountability Act)

Dear Committee members:

This legislation is concerning because the job of raising children to act correctly in society is the parents', not the school's. The government has no authority in doing anything other than notifying the parents of the behavior. I oppose this legislation for that reason. Thank you.

James Elbourn

Severna Park, M