

The government will be able to dictate what type of health care is provided. This is not freedom.