

At a time when American families and businesses are feeling the financial strain coming back from Covid and inflation, you are going to cause local businesses to fail and struggle. Taking the liability releases away will leave the business owners open to higher costs and greater risks. You may cause businesses to move out of the state and along with jobs. Please do not push this through.