

I am not in favor of the proposed bill on liability waivers. I have run my riding school business in the State of Maryland since 1985 and this bill will make it impossible for me to continue my business as the corresponding rise in insurance rates will price me out. It is difficult enough with the rise in inflation to afford to feed, house and properly take care of horses and run a successful business. Passing this bill will make it impossible.