

I am opposed. This would have disastrous effects on Maryland's equine industry, which is quite large in Maryland and is a uniquely great way for people to get exercise and be outdoors.