

To whom it may concern,

We run an equine boarding and lesson operation in Worcester county, and without liability waivers signed by our clients, we would likely close our business, due to increased risk, and prohibitive insurance costs.

Unless the equine industry is exempted, you run the risk of losing the massive horse industry in Maryland, and the many millions of dollars it generates.

Sincerely,

Endeavor Farm, Inc,