

I strongly support HB1396. Certain properties have been given conservation easements. If a property is encumbered by this easement, it should not be allowed to be taken by condemnation for the construction of a powerline. The reasons for the conservation easement should not be allowed to be over ridden by the construction of a transmission line nor other new power generation or transmission. Please support HB1396.