

I support HB1337

When land is condemned businesses and farm owners must be compensated fairly for lost income and profits. This is particularly important in cases where corporations like PSEG are trying to use eminent domain to get right of ways to erect overhead transmission lines. This is a fast and easy way for them to increase profits, while the land is rendered useless for farmers and other businesses.

Respecctfully submitted,

Lisa Orens

Owner, Bluebird Hall Farm