

I support HB1362

When land is condemned businesses and farm owners must be compensated for legal and expert fees. Through no fault of their own, property owners are forced to seek legal counsel and professional expert consultations to protect their property from condemnation. The State of Maryland must do more to protect its citizens and ensure that corporations are not making profits on the backs of innocent taxpayers.

Respecctfully submitted,

Lisa Orens

Owner, Bluebird Hall Farm