

Would this unobstructed beauty still be visible if CAD dredge storage was done here, and what effect would it have on the people, animals, plants, and sea life that call this area home?

If CAD is allowed in the Patapsco River, will it be there to enjoy like it is now for future generations?

