

I support SB951

Restoring the ability of investor-owned utilities to own and operate power generation and transmission assets will benefit taxpayers by moving some of the costs of construction to the utilities from taxpayers.