Bill Title: HB 709- Landlord and Tenant - Residential Leases and Holdover Tenancies - Local Good Cause Termination (Good Cause Eviction)

Position: SUPPORT (FAV)

To: Environment & Transportation Committee

From: Sergine Yango, Maryland Renter, Member of the Enclave Tenant Association

Dear Chair Korman and Members of the Committee,

My name is Sergine Yango, and I am a renter in Silver Spring, District 20. I am writing to strongly support HB 709, which would allow local governments to pass Good Cause eviction laws. Right now, in Maryland, landlords can choose not to renew a lease for no reason at all, leaving families without a home, even when they've paid rent on time and followed all the rules.

I am strongly supporting SB 651 because there are many instances where management retaliates against residents when they are being vocal about their rights as tenants or when they organize themselves to speak out when they have issues.

Good Cause laws don't stop landlords from evicting tenants who break the lease—they just require landlords to provide a legitimate reason for not renewing someone's lease. These laws give renters basic stability and prevent unnecessary displacement.

Right now, Maryland is one of only five states that ban local governments from passing Good Cause laws. Passing this bill would give counties the choice to protect renters in their communities. This is especially important for families like mine, who just want the chance to stay in our homes without fear of sudden and unfair displacement.

Eight states and Washington, D.C., have already passed Good Cause protections. Maryland should too.

I urge you to support HB 709 so that renters like me have a fair chance to stay in our homes. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Sergine Yango
