Dear Chairperson Smith and Judicial Proceedings Committee,

The Frederick County Domestic Violence Coordinating Council (DVCC) writes in support of Senate Bill 146: Criminal Procedure – Admission of Out-of-Court Statements – Assault in the Second Degree. The Frederick County DVCC is a multidisciplinary public commission, formed in 2020, to increase collaboration and communication among criminal and civil justice stakeholders, service providers, and community members with the goal of reducing and preventing domestic violence in Frederick County.

The DVCC is in support of Senate Bill 146 because most domestic assault prosecutions are categorized as second-degree assaults. While not felonies, they are critical State intervention points—working to interrupt the cycle of violence before a felony-level assault occurs. Under current law, an abuser benefits by engaging in wrongdoing that makes a Victim or witness unavailable to testify against them--because relevant and inculpatory statements are excluded under the hearsay rules. The research is clear that behavior aimed at manipulating and silencing victims is a common technique of domestic abusers. When they benefit from their wrongdoing in the courtroom, their abuse is enabled and perpetuated by a system that fails to hold them to account.

We urge a favorable report on SB 146.

BILL NO: Senate Bill 0146
TITLE: Admission of Out-of-Court Statements - Assault in the Second Degree
COMMITTEE: Judicial Proceedings
HEARING DATE: January 16, 2025
POSITION: SUPPORT

The Women's Law Center of Maryland (WLC) is a non-profit legal services and advocacy organization dedicated to ensuring the physical safety, economic security, and bodily autonomy of women in Maryland. While our direct representation projects are limited to primarily survivors of domestic violence, our advocacy is in support of gender justice as a whole, because all women are entitled to access to justice, equality, and autonomy. We recognize that all the issues we fight for are interconnected. Women cannot have bodily autonomy unless they have physical safety. They cannot have physical safety without economic security. And they cannot have economic security without bodily autonomy.

The Women's Law Center supports SB0146. Many of the clients we serve have civil and criminal matters where they are victims of second-degree assault. This bill would allow an exception to the hearsay rule by allowing a statement admissible if the statement is being offered against a party that has engaged in, or conspired to commit wrongdoing that was intended to and does procure the unavailability of the declarant.

Victims in domestic violence cases experience a variety of challenges when making decisions about testifying against their abusers. Some of those challenges are as a direct result of the abuser threatening the well-being of the victim. This bill will allow the statement of an unavailable witness in evidence if a Court finds the unavailability was as result of the wrongdoing by the party opponent.

As such, The Women's Law Center of Maryland urges a favorable report on SB 0146.

The Women's Law Center of Maryland is a non-profit legal services organization whose mission is to ensure the physical safety, economic security, and bodily autonomy of women in Maryland. Our mission is advanced through direct legal services, information and referral hotlines, and statewide advocacy.

Dear Chair Smith and Committee Members:

On behalf of the Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office and the Maryland State's Attorneys' Association, I write in support of SB146—Criminal Procedure—Admission of Out-of-Court Statements—Assault in the Second Degree. I am the Chief of the Special Victims Division for the Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office. I am also the co-chair of the MSSA Special Victims Committee and a member of the Governor's Family Violence Council.

Section 10-901 of the Maryland Criminal Law Article sets forth an exception to the Rules of Evidence that govern hearsay. If the defendant on criminal trial "engaged in, directed, or conspired to commit wrongdoing" against a victim or a witness, and the defendant "intended to and did procure the unavailability of the [victim or witness]," the court can admit an out-of-court statement made by that victim or witness without live testimony in court. This section, however, only applies in criminal cases where the defendant is charged with a felony. This statute precludes the admission of such statements in trials for second degree assault, a crime we regularly see committed in domestic violence cases. Senate Bill 146 removes this barrier and allows the Court to hear from the victim or witness through their pretrial statements.

Over the past 25 years, I have handled 100s of cases involving domestic violence. Domestic abusers rely on power and control to dominate, intimate, coerce, and manipulate. Consequently, we often see that power and control dynamic dominate any court proceedings that involve the abuser and their victim. I personally have reviewed jail calls, text messages, and emails where abusers apply their power and control to prevent victims from testifying against them. The threats have varied, but the outcome is the same: Victims fear the repercussions of their testimony and elect not to participate in the criminal justice system.

Senate Bill 146 prevents the abuser from controlling the outcome of the criminal trial against them. This bill literally rights a wrong. The voices of victims and witnesses will be heard at trial, despite the abuser's best efforts to prevent them from coming to court and testifying. Defendants should not be allowed to benefit from their wrongdoing.

I strongly urge this Committee to issue a favorable report on SB146.

Sincerely,

Debbie Feinstein

BILL NO: Senate Bill 146
TITLE: Criminal Procedure - Admission of Out-of-Court Statements - Assault in the Second Degree
COMMITTEE: Judicial Proceedings
HEARING DATE: January 16, 2025
POSITION: Support

The Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence (MNADV) is the state domestic violence coalition that brings together victim service providers, allied professionals, and concerned individuals for the common purpose of reducing intimate partner and family violence and its harmful effects on our citizens. MNADV urges the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee to issue a favorable report on SB 146.

Currently, under § 10-901 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, a statement is not excluded by the hearsay rule and is admissible during the criminal trial of a defendant charged with a felony violation if the statement is offered against a party that has engaged in, directed, or conspired to commit wrongdoing that was intended to and did render the witness unavailable.

Senate Bill 146 would expand the existing hearsay exception to include second degree assault charged in a criminal trial. A court must find by a preponderance of the evidence that the party against whom the statement is offered has engaged in specified activities that rendered the witness unavailable.

Second degree assault is commonly charged in domestic violence cases. Due to the ongoing power and control dynamics present in domestic violence, an abuser could threaten or coerce a victim into not testifying in a criminal proceeding. The law would require that a party's wrongdoing be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. Senate Bill 146 allows the victim to testify through their prior statements, statements that were made at a time they were safe and able to state what happened to them, so long as they were contemporaneously recorded, made under oath and subject to the penalties of perjury at a proceeding or in a deposition, or were written and signed by the declarant (victim). Too many times, by the time the criminal matter is litigated, the victims/survivor has been influenced to not want to testify against their abuser. Prosecutors cite this as a common reason to end up dismissing or reducing charges against an abuser. Senate Bill 146 would allow prior statements (e.g., statements to responding officers that are signed by the victim) to be used as evidence.

For the above stated reasons, the Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence urges a favorable report on SB 146.

The Maryland Coalition Against Sexual Assault (MCASA) is a non-profit membership organization that includes the State's seventeen rape crisis centers, law enforcement, mental health and health care providers, attorneys, educators, survivors of sexual violence and other concerned individuals. MCASA includes the Sexual Assault Legal Institute (SALI), a statewide legal services provider for survivors of sexual assault. MCASA represents the unified voice and combined energy of all of its members working to eliminate sexual violence. We urge the Judicial Proceedings Committee to report favorably on Senate Bill 146.

Senate Bill 146 – Forfeiture by Wrong-Doing – 2d degree Assault

Senate Bill 146 would permit the admission of out of court statements made by victims and witnesses in 2d degree assault trials if the statement is offered against a defendant who has engaged in, directed, or conspired to commit wrongdoing that was intended to and did procure the unavailability of the victim or witness. Current law, Courts and Judicial Proceedings §10-901, allows for the admission of these statements in any criminal trial of a felony, but excludes these statements in second degree assault cases, a misdemeanor and a common charge in intimate partner violence cases, including cases involving sexual assault.

Admitting this evidence is particularly important when a defendant threatens a victim or coerces a victim witness not to testify, and that wrongdoing can be demonstrated. Senate Bill 146 would allow the victim's prior statements to be introduced and prevent the abuser from benefitting from wrongdoing.

The Honorable Wes Moore, Governor of Maryland
The Honorable Bill Ferguson, President of the Senate
The Honorable Adrienne A. Jones, Speaker of the House of Delegates

Re: Senate Bill 209 – Task Force to Study Crime Classification

Dear Governor Moore, President Ferguson, and Speaker Jones:

I write to you on behalf of the Task Force to Study Crime Classification (“Task Force”), established by Senate Bill 209, 2023 Md. Laws, Chap. 712 (S.B. 209). This letter outlines the work of the Task Force and its recommendations.

The Task Force is charged with:

- (1) Studying and making recommendations regarding a method for classifying crimes and civil offenses under State law; and
- (2) Identifying and logically categorizing all crimes and civil offenses that exist under State law.

The Task Force was assembled in August 2023. The members of the Task Force included Senator Christopher R. West, Delegate Karen Toles, State’s Attorney Haven N. Shoemaker, Jr., Carrie Williams, Benjamin Harris, Megan Coleman, Katy O’Donnell, Jessica Bancroft, and Melanie Shapiro. The Task Force was staffed by Sophie Asike and Tiffany Dayemo.

The Task Force held its first meeting in September 2023 and met approximately six times between September 2023 and December 2023.

September 15, 2023 Meeting

The Task Force held its first meeting on September 15, 2023. At the meeting, the Task Force discussed its duties under Senate Bill 209, and worked to identify objectives of the Bill moving forward.

The Task Force began by reviewing the scope of Senate Bill 209 by looking at the language of the Bill. The Bill calls for classifying and categorizing “all crimes and civil offenses that exist under State law.” The Task Force discussed whether that plain language meant that the Task Force was required to review all 36 titles under the Maryland Code (including the Agriculture Article through the Transportation Article) to identify any crime or civil offense that carries either a penalty of incarceration or simply a fine.

The Task Force did a preliminary search in Westlaw to search the Maryland Code for all pertinent phrases, such as “imprisonment,” “offense,” “fine,” “penalties and fines,” or “penalty.” The Task Force removed from the search the articles most likely to generate those terms, including Correctional Services, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Public Safety, and Transportation. Notwithstanding the removal of those articles from the search, for the remaining articles, the search yielded 759 entries for the term “imprisonment,” 3,816 entries for the term “penalty” or “penalties,” 1,702 entries for the term “fine,” 838 entries for the term “offense,” and 1,455 entries for the phrase “penalties and fines.”

As a result, the Task Force determined that a review of “all crimes and civil offenses that exist under State law” would be an enormous undertaking, and one not attainable within the three-and-a-half months remaining before the Task Force was required to submit this letter.

The Task Force also decided to review the prior work of the first Task Force, established by House Bill 542 of the 2019 Session, and to seek input from those members as to how best to proceed with this task.

Also at this first meeting, the Task Force inquired into whether there was any funding available to staff an associate or research assistant, and advertised, through the University of Maryland Carey School of Law, for a law student to serve as a Task Force intern. The Task Force received one response from an interested law student, but that response was not received until November 2023.

September 29, 2023 Meeting

At this meeting, one of the current members of the Task Force presented an Excel spreadsheet that contains information based on the Maryland Sentencing Guidelines (“Guidelines”). The Guidelines consist of the most commonly charged offenses in the Circuit Courts of Maryland, but do not contain information on many offenses that are only charged in the District Court of Maryland. The offenses listed in this Excel spreadsheet are predominantly from the Criminal Law and Transportation Articles; however, there are also several offenses from various other articles as well. The spreadsheet allows reviewers to organize the categories and to sort the data.

At this meeting, the Task Force was presented with an initial draft that contained 728 offenses, mostly from the Criminal law Article. That initial draft was subsequently amended and now is separated by two tabs.

The first tab of the amended spreadsheet identifies 1,488 offenses, mostly from the Criminal Law Article, and is inclusive of the following categories of information:

- Name of the Offense
- Statutory Provision for the Offense
- CJIS Code
- COMAR Number
- Felony or Misdemeanor
- Maximum Penalty
- Minimum Penalty (if applicable)
- Offense Type (Person/Drug/Property)
- Seriousness Category in Guidelines
- Associated Fine (if applicable)

Data for some of the offenses still needs to be inputted into this spreadsheet.

The second tab of the spreadsheet identifies 1,607 offenses, mostly from the Transportation Article, and is inclusive of the following categories of information:

- Name of the Offense
- Charge ID Number
- Statutory Provision for the Offense
- Maximum Penalty
- Minimum Penalty (if applicable)
- Associated Fine (if applicable)

Data for some of the offenses still needs to be inputted into this spreadsheet.

October 20, 2023 Meeting

At this meeting, the Task Force welcomed David Soule, Executive Director of the Maryland State Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy and Principal Faculty Specialist at the University of Maryland, in the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice. Dr. Soule was a member of the prior Task Force to Study Crime Classification and Penalties from 2019-2021.

Dr. Soule shared a database that he previously put together using the Guidelines offense table. This database was similar to the Excel document drafted by the current Task Force. Dr. Soule's database contained 729 offenses from the Guidelines and 1607 offenses from the traffic code. The database collected information based upon the name of the offense, statutory citation, category of the offense, corresponding CJIS code and COMAR number, seriousness category of the offense, whether the offense was a felony or misdemeanor, mandatory and minimum penalties, and a few other categories. This spreadsheet was last updated in 2019.

Dr. Soule explained how the Maryland Sentencing Commission establishes and maintains the Guidelines. The Commission first has to establish a ranking of offenses based upon their level of seriousness, with Category VII being least serious and Category I being most serious. In order to determine the level of seriousness of an offense, the Commission turns to three pieces of information that guide the classification within a seriousness category.

The first, and most important piece of information for the Commission, is the associated penalty with the offense. For instance, a crime that carries life imprisonment will usually be deemed a Category I offense, whereas a crime that carries 30 days' imprisonment will usually be deemed a Category VII offense. Dr. Soule explained that the statutory maximum for the offense is the most important factor for the Commission.

The second factor is whether the offense is labeled a felony or a misdemeanor.

The third factor is the nature of the offense. Dr. Soule explained that this factor has the least influence on the seriousness category because the Commission assumes that the General Assembly has identified its intentions about the severity of the offense based upon the maximum penalty established and the classification of whether it is a misdemeanor or a felony.

Dr. Soule discussed how Maryland's penalty provisions are unlike other states in that Maryland does not identify levels of severity of the offense based on gradations within its statutes. For instance, many states have felonies and misdemeanors that are labeled A, B, C, D, and E, and those categories are generally driven by the statutory maximum for the offense.

Dr. Soule further advised that Maryland still retains common law offenses that do not have corresponding statutory penalties.

The Task Force asked Dr. Soule whether other states have particular lines of demarcation distinguishing felonies from misdemeanors. Dr. Soule explained that, in most states, a penalty of less than one year is considered a misdemeanor offense, and a penalty of more than one year is considered a felony offense. There are also classifications for petty misdemeanors which may include 30-day offenses.

Dr. Soule identified Maryland's Second-Degree Assault statute as being an outlier: being labeled a misdemeanor, but carrying a 10-year penalty.

Dr. Soule expressed that the prior Task Force had two years to cull this information, and, even then, the task was one that would take significantly more time and resources before a final recommendation could be made. Dr. Soule agreed that it was difficult to reach a consensus on the best way to categorize or reclassify offenses when the scope of the legislation was very broad.

This Task Force greatly benefitted from the insights of a member of the Maryland State Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy. After meeting with Dr. Soule, it became apparent to this Task Force that much of the work that this Task Force set out to do has already been produced and maintained by the Sentencing Commission.

November 17, 2023 Meeting

At this meeting, the Task Force welcomed Professor David Jaros, the Faculty Director of the Criminal Justice Center at the University of Baltimore School of Law. Professor Jaros served on the prior Task Force.

Professor Jaros presented his prior findings, including his research into laws in other states. Professor Jaros and his law students did a state-by-state analysis to determine how each state structured its respective criminal codes. The purpose of this endeavor was to determine whether Maryland could better structure its Criminal Law Article, which is largely based on common law. New York State, for example, follows the Model Penal Code by providing definitions for the mens rea of the offenses. By contrast, in Maryland, to determine what suffices for the mens rea of a particular offense, one must turn to case law for examples.

Professor Jaros also focused his research on the crime of assault in other states to see how it compared to Maryland's 10-year misdemeanor offense for Second-Degree Assault.

Professor Jaros and his law students put together a spreadsheet that contained the following categories:

- Names of all States
- Level of Assault
- Classification Scheme
- Misdemeanor or Felony
- Collateral Consequences
- Default Mental State
- Presumption Against Strict Liability
- Adopted Model Penal Code
- Sample Criminal Penalties for Petty Larceny, Grand Larceny, Burglary, Murder, Felony Murder

This spreadsheet was last updated in 2019.

Professor Jaros explained that Maryland's misdemeanor assault offense is a clear example of why the General Assembly should revisit crime classification in Maryland.

Professor Jaros explained that there are over 1,500 crimes to evaluate, and that the directive of the prior legislation did not clearly identify the factors to be considered when evaluating the criminal penalties associated with those crimes. Professor Jaros explained that a substantial amount of time would be needed to complete the task and that funding for research assistants would be essential towards making headway with this endeavor.

December 1, 2023 Meeting

At this meeting, the Task Force reviewed a draft of this letter and discussed recommendations to be included in the final letter.

December 15, 2023 Meeting

At this meeting, the Task Force reviewed this letter, including the preliminary findings, and voted on the recommendations and proposed methodology included herein.

Preliminary Findings

A preliminary review of the Excel spreadsheet reveals the following:

As to Gradations of Offense:

- There are varying periods of imprisonment for State offenses including:
 - 30 days, 60 days, 90 days, 180 days, 1 year, 18 months, 2 years, 3 years, 4 years, 5 years, 6 years, 7 years, 8 years, 9 years, 10 years, 12 years, 15 years, 20 years, 25 years, 30 years, 40 years, Life, and Life Without the Possibility of Parole
- Local ordinances, which are not included in Excel spreadsheet, are subject to their own penalties.

Potential Outliers

- There are misdemeanors that are potential outliers for the penalty, such as:
 - Common law misdemeanors in which any penalty that does not violate the 8th Amendment could be a term of up to Life Imprisonment
 - Misdemeanor penalties that carry a substantial period of incarceration, from 6 years' all the way up to 20 years' imprisonment
- There are misdemeanors and felonies that overlap for the penalty, such as:
 - Periods of imprisonment ranging from 1 year to 10 years, where in some instances the offense is a misdemeanor, in other instances the offense is a felony

Recommendations

The Task Force voted to make the following recommendations:

1. Clarify the Intent of the Legislation and the Scope of the Reclassification

The directive from S.B. 209 was to “study and make recommendations regarding a method for classifying crimes and civil offenses under State law,” but there were no parameters set as to what that meant or what the objective of the classification was. Therefore, the Task Force brainstormed ways in which the existing offenses could be sorted and reclassified. For instance:

- Offenses could be organized by their penalties and then reclassified as a felony or misdemeanor depending on the penalty. This would require an agreement as to what penalty serves as the line of demarcation between a misdemeanor and a felony. For example, should a felony be a one-year offense, a five-year offense, or a ten-year offense?
- Offenses could be organized by their penalties and then categorized by gradations of misdemeanors and felonies to correspond with the severity of the offense identified in the Guidelines.
- Common law offenses could be abrogated in their entirety by statute. This would ensure that there are statutory maximums for every criminal offense. This approach might require consideration of adoption of the Model Penal Code to further define elements of the offense, especially for the mens rea of each offense, in order to ensure consistency in definitions.

- Offenses could be classified based upon approaches taken by other states. This would require an in-depth analysis of out-of-state statutes, cases, and legislative materials.
- Offenses could be checked for disproportionately severe or lenient penalties.
- Penalization could be reviewed to determine if certain conduct disproportionately harms marginalized communities.

It would be helpful for a future Task Force to understand the drivers behind the legislation in order to better understand the purposes to be served by reclassification. If it is a matter of ensuring that the offenses on today's books mirror the values in today's society, that will take a greater amount of effort and input from various stakeholders in the Maryland legal community.

2. Narrow the Offenses to be Reviewed

It would also be helpful if the future legislation could narrow and further define the scope of the task. Currently, S.B. 209 requires the Task Force to review "all crimes and civil offenses under State law," which, as discussed above, would not only be a monumental task, but would require analysis of offenses outside of the Criminal Law Article and the Guidelines.

To make the task more manageable, it is recommended that the first phase consider the offenses contained within the Guidelines. The second phase may consider the remainder of the offenses in the Criminal Law Article and Transportation Article. After that, perhaps the Task Force could then review other sections of the code that contain penalty and fine provisions.

3. Ensure Adequate Support

Once the objective is firmly established, the Task Force could effectively assess the staffing needs for the completion of the project.

The Task Force recommends that the Task Force be provided with adequate funding to staff contractual attorneys, paralegals, and law students to assist in this endeavor. The first Task Force was able to put together the materials referenced in this letter due, in large part, to the law students that professors had at their disposal to do the research.

4. Ensure Adequate Time

The current Task Force was selected in August, first met in September, and was required to provide its report by December. This Task Force recommends that the time frame be extended to no less than one year, but ideally at least two years, to accomplish the objective.

The Methodology to Implement the Objective

Once the objective is more narrowly tailored, a future Task Force should consider the following:

1. Consider additional information that may be needed, such as:
 - a. Statistics on penalties imposed by judges vs. penalties recommended by the Guidelines
 - b. Statistics on offenses that are rarely charged and/or rarely result in a jail or prison sentence
2. Identify the potential driving forces for reclassification
 - a. Penalties are not consistent
 - i. 1-year felony vs. 10-year misdemeanor
 - b. Policy concerns
 - c. Uniformity with other states
 - d. Mens rea considerations
 - e. Similarity among offenses, both within the same article, as well as among various articles
 - f. Collateral consequences (licensing issues: driving, guns, professional licenses)
3. Reach out to individual organizations to solicit feedback on areas that the greater legal community, as a whole, would like to see reformed
4. After collecting and reviewing the data, identify logical areas of classification and/or areas that might benefit from a change

The members of the Task Force and I greatly look forward to the opportunity to continue our work.

Sincerely,

Megan E. Coleman, Chair
Task Force to Study Crime Classification

THE SENATE OF MARYLAND
ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21401

January 16, 2025

Sponsor Testimony for Senate Bill 146 - Criminal Procedure - Admission of Out-of-Court Statements - Assault in the Second Degree

Mr. Chairman, Vice Chair, and Members of the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee,

Senate Bill 146 adds second degree assault to the statute that allows prosecutors to introduce statements in a criminal trial when the witness is unavailable and when that unavailability was caused by the wrongdoing of a criminal defendant. The statute to be amended is called the "Unavailability of declarant of statement due to wrongdoing" (see Court and Judicial Proceedings §10-901) Both codify the doctrine of "forfeiture against wrongdoing" which stands for the proposition that although an accused defendant, in general, has a right to confront a witness against them (by cross-examination), a court will not suffer a party to profit by his (or her) own wrongdoing (see Crawford v. Washington 541 U.S. 36 (2004), Davis v. Washington 547 U.S. 813 (2006)).

And while forfeiture by wrongdoing is recognized, either by statute, rule, or common law in every state, the bill sponsor could not find another federal or state jurisdiction that limits its use as only Maryland does to felonies. Rather, every else but Maryland, invokes the doctrine in any criminal case where a criminal defendant uses force, threats, persuasion, control, wrongful disclosure of information, collusion or any other behavior that creates a nexus between the defendant's acts and the unavailability of the declarant.

While SB 146 does not seek to eliminate the seemingly inexplicable difference in treatment of defendants charged with felonies and those with misdemeanors that engage in wrongdoing which results in a witness not testifying in court, it does seek recognition and equal treatment for the serious and violent charge of second degree assault for which, by its definition, is a crime of violence involving non-minor injuries and up to 10 years in prison (Criminal Law §3-203).

harm to victims and its high penalty do not match its stated category as a misdemeanor. Rather, in substance, it is analogous to a felony.

This mislabeling is also allowing a miscarriage of justice under the forfeiture by wrongdoing statute by depriving prosecutors the opportunity to go after domestic abusers as they are most often charged with second degree assault and their frequent modus operandi is to intimidate, coerce, and manipulate their victims into backing out of appearing in court to testify about the suffering and physical harm they have endured. Domestic abusers are well-aware of Maryland's loophole, so even when brave and battered women call the police desperately seeking the protection they deserve, giving law enforcement a full, recorded accounting, the abusers are often not held to account. That is because during the months it takes to bring the defendant to trial, the victims are being worn down by the defendant, and she never tells her story in court.

Without amending §10-901, the victim's previous recorded statement is barred from use at trial and another known abuser walks free. A favorable Judicial Proceedings Report on SB 146 will stop it.

TESTIMONY ON SB#0146 - POSITION: FAVORABLE
Criminal Procedure - Admission of Out-of-Court Statements - Assault in the Second Degree

TO: Chair Smith, Vice Chair Waldstreicher, and members of the Judicial Proceedings Committee

FROM: Richard Keith Kaplowitz

My name is Richard Kaplowitz. I am a resident of District 3. I am submitting this testimony in support of/ SB#/0146, Criminal Procedure - Admission of Out-of-Court Statements - Assault in the Second Degree

This bill is a priority for the County Executive and County Council of Frederick County.

Currently, only a handful of professionals are allowed to conduct interviews with children that are admissible in court. These professions include physicians, psychologists, nurses, social workers, principals (or other school staff), counselors, and therapists. However, this leaves interviews conducted by forensic interviewers as inadmissible in court, causing the potential for children to be required to withstand the traumatic experience of testifying in an in-person courtroom.

This bill, when passed, will allow for a state code amendment that expands the list of qualified professionals to perform interviews with children that produce out of court statements admissible in court. Frederick government strongly believes that the Maryland General Assembly should pass legislation that authorizes a forensic interviewer to conduct admissible out of court interviews. By expanding the list of those qualified to conduct out of court interviews to forensic interviewers, children who enter our CAC would always have a qualified staff member to perform court admissible interviews. This would ensure that children are not forced to go through the traumatic experience of testifying in court, often in the same room as their abuser. Requiring children to testify in court extends their traumatic experience and sometimes leaves cases to go to settlement due to the child's inability to share their story in this high stress environment. The adverse effects on how these possible criminals are successfully prosecuted and made to pay for their horrid crimes should be apparent.

This is a bill to help preserve the mental health of vulnerable children who have been subject to a possible physical crime. It is incumbent upon us to protect our children.

I respectfully urge this committee to return a favorable report on SB0146.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF SCOTT D. SHELLENBERGER,
STATE'S ATTORNEY FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY,
IN SUPPORT OF SENATE BILL 146
CRIMINAL PROCEDURE – ADMISSION OF OUT-OF-COURT STATEMENTS –
ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE

I write in support of Senate Bill 146 Admission of Out-of-Court Statements as a much needed expansion of Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article 10-901.

CJ 10-901 is an exception to the hearsay rule for when a defendant is charged with a felony and the person charged has engaged in conduct intended to make the witness unavailable.

This situation most often occurs in domestic violence cases. Many domestic violence cases are charged with Assault and Battery in the Second Degree which is not a felony. By expanding CJ 10-901 to include Assault and Battery it will give prosecutors another tool to deal with these very difficult cases. Please look closely at subsection (c) and the requirements that the statement was previously made under oath, in writing or recorded by electronic means. This will most often happen when an officer arrives and has a body camera.

The most likely scenario that this will occur in are a call to 911 and an officer responding. The officer meets the victim and the victim tells what happened. This will be recorded on the body camera and can be played in court should the other requirements of 10-901(a) be met.

A DV prosecutor is constantly faced with the reality that either through threats or manipulation, DV offenders continue to pull the strings, even when they are incarcerated pending trial. Many of these cases are charged with misdemeanor assault, and as the law currently stands, Defendants benefit from procuring a victim's absence simply because they are not charged with a felony.

Victims of domestic violence are faced with many challenges when a case is brought for prosecution – they often rely on the offender for financial support, share children and a home with them, and are otherwise entangled in the cycle of abuse. It is challenging enough to convince a DV victim to hold their abuser accountable, but when that abuser is able to use threats and manipulation as a means to escape prosecution, it becomes an almost impossible feat for the State to secure participation.

It defies logic to allow a Defendant to benefit from his meddling in the justice system. And in fact, this State agreed when it enacted Courts & Judicial Proceedings

§10-901. Why should we limit this law to only apply to felonies, when thousands of domestic violence cases are charged with misdemeanor assault?

I ask you to please consider how we not only protect victims who do come forward and testify, but also how we protect those who are too frightened or too entrenched in the cycle to do so.

I urge a favorable report.
