

Requiring the proof of identity for in-person voting is the only way to assure the election integrity