

I support HB0068. Students suspected of a crime of violence should NOT be allowed to attend school with the general population of students. The argument that the child may be out of school too long while their guilt or innocence is determined is flawed. Children AND adults need to have consequences for their actions and the legal process needs to fully play out before innocent children is potentially harmed.