

I support HB0147. Limiting student technology use during the school day is necessary. Our children need to focus on interpersonal relationships. We are now in an age of using common sense. Children need to be children, play like children and stay away from screens during school.