

My daughter's best friend, Lindsay Weiner and her sister Jillian, were tragically killed in a house fire at their vacation home. This was an unthinkable and unbearable tragedy that could have and should have been avoided. Their brave mother, Alisa Weiner has supported a bill that would require short term rentals to uplevel their responsibility for safety that will prevent this kind of unthinkable loss in the future. I urge you to pass this bill. Thank you, Susan Kaufer.