

SB0050_Esko_FAV

Title 9 preserves the opportunities for female students to participate in sports. Giving women's spots to biological males is unfair, dangerous, and puts Maryland's federal funding at risk. Male students who identify as female are welcome to play sports on men's teams because sports are physical activities and teams and competitions are rightfully categorized by weight, age, and biological sex.

Please give SB5 a favorable report.